Dear Parents/Caregivers

YEAR 4-6 PRIMARY AUTHOR VISIT 2016

We’re thrilled to have Mark Greenwood joining us on Monday, 7 March for our annual Primary Author Visit. Mark is visiting from Western Australia next month and we were fortunate enough to secure a session with him for our Year 4 – 6 students. The session will be run at the Glasshouse Country Baptist Church at the front of the College from 8:45am-9:45am. Parents and caregivers are very welcome to attend.

Mark is a well-known author with a passion for Australian History, encouraging readers to develop an appreciation of Australia’s unique myths and legends. He has written many books including: The Legend of Moondyne Joe, The Legend of Lassester’s Reef, Simpson and his Donkey, Ned Kelly and the Green Sash and his most recent books Jandamarra and Midnight – the story of the light horse.

A selection of books signed by Mark is available for pre-order on the form attached. Purchasing books is optional and may be done before or after Mark’s visit. We have a copy of most of the titles to view in the library. Payment for pre-orders are to be sent to GCC Admin by Friday, 26 February. Orders can be paid by cash, cheque or direct debit. See the order form for payment details. Please note pre-ordered books incur no postage charge. Books ordered at the end of Mark’s session will incur a standard postage charge of $4.00 + $1.00 per book. All books ordered will be signed by Mark. Please note that some of the content in the titles is confronting, so previewing the titles prior to ordering is encouraged.

Please contact Vanessa McKellar at library@glasshouse.qld.edu.au if you require further clarification.

Yours sincerely
